TERMS OF THE DAILY

cent election, we believe, were furnished from the office of the Secretary of State, for the sake of securing uniformity. The fact that they were prepared with a blank for Congress indicates that no books will be sent out by that officer for such an election in October, and if one is to be held it will depend for its machinery entirely on the clerks of the Board of Supervisors as well as on the voluntary ac tion of election officers who may be of the opinion that the law authorizes an Greeley's Campaign Speeches.

It is a new thingfunder the sun to have a candidate for the Presidency of the Uni-tel States travelling through the country msking speeches in his own behalt. That bjest what Mr. GREELEY is doing now, and all his utterances along the route are gravely to contradict the statement that I had been a Know Nothing, and I had better let them pass, better let them all

NOT THE SAME AS IT WAS YEARS AGO."

not act in the past.

ing done this, we must next pay our at-tention to that corruption which is fast eating into the vitals of the body politic, and see if we can't devise some means to made our legislation, State and national, better than it has been, and government on the whole a public benefit, and not op-pression and exaction. Such, friends, is

THE WORK BEFORE US.

I leave you to judge through what instru mentalities, by what noble efforts on your part, its noble end shall be achieved. HORACE TO HARRISBURG.

Scarcely had the last gun of our great ciril war ceased to reverberate over the hills of Virginia when my voice was raised in favor of forbearance and mercy, amount and vaccasitation (Cheer,) mesty and reconciliation. (Cheers)

election in October ground for attaching significance to this next day will welcome. Now I stand nission" as indicative of Gov. Jacon's above all things tievs on the question of the Congress THE CANDIDATE OF UNIVERSAL AMNESTY fews on the question of the national state of the laws of this State do not require suffrage until victory is won. I now demand the completion of the national tribute of the umph in the relief of every man now dis-franchised because of his part in the late rebellion—his relief by a perfect amnesty, [Applause.] We had a glorious promise of that amnesty in the platform of the Republican party of 1808. That promise tion of any regular election but the presidestial election. An election in October I held at all could only be held as s regular election, under a statute claimed to be unrepealed, and would has not been performed. I stand here to demand that it shall be. [Applause] It seems to me, fellow citizens, that I need not plead for these doctrines in the State founded by William Penn. The world knows what was his spirit, and they know how thereughly require no notice by proclamation. That the Governor does not issue a proclamation for such an election neither signifies anything as to his opinion touching the legality of such an election nor in know how thoroughly. any wise affects the holding of it. Wheth-THAT SPIRIT PLEADS TO-DAY it will be held must depend, it would for the doctrines in behalf of which I seem, on the officers of election in the stand before you. If I could insure the success of that amnesty better by ceasing to be a candidate I would gladly do so. I Boards of Supervisors who are charged with the duty of providing poll books, hallot boxes, &c. Poll-books for the relesure only that our disfranchised and prodesire only that our distranonised and pro-scribed fellow citizens may be welcomed back under the folds of the national flag, which, in an unwise hour, they deserted; and shall be welcomed back not as peni-tents, but as fellow citizens whe, having seen the error of their ways, and having again renewed their old fidelity to their country shall be like you and me, like every man, white or black, in this coun-try—citizens simple; and only on that latform, for that purpose, I stand before ou. And, fellow citizens, be cheared by the truth that THE FUTURE BELONGS TO US.

Passions, hatred and thought of rebellion, all these things, must necessarily die away. Time will make their echoes feebler and teebler, and the day cannot be far distant when we shall rejoice in a restored nationality, so perfect that there shall be no citizen, American born or naturalized, who is not comprehended within its benealcent folds. In these views and spirit I bid you, fellow citizens, a kind and affectionate farewell.

The Flurry in Wall Street.

From the Merald of Thursday.

In a few words, then, the ducks an fully reported by the great metropolitan journals. His passage through Pennsyljournals. His passage through Pennsylvania, as we find it reported in the Herald, was a sort of triumphal tour, with crowds of people and little impromptu speeches from the Philosopher at all the stations. Mr. General's most notable utterances were at Laucaster and Harrisville, and as were at Laucaster and Harrisville, and as were at Laucaster and property of triumphal to the stations. severa Lancaster and Harrisvine, and as sowing what a presidential candidate can have to say about himself and his praciples we copy them:

what the same said there was an opportunity of tripping up the host of small fry and over-confi, dent operators, and bought up Eric stock money and gold, so that those who had sales to deliver were cornered. But the WHAT THE SAGE SAID TO LANCASTER:

FELLOW CITIZENS OF LANCASTER:
You see before you to-day one who is the subject of very much reprobation and unsparing denunciation. It is widely reported that he who addresses you is or as been a secessionist, a rebel, (laughter)—a know Nothing, a negro trader, or whatever else seems likely to incite prejudice against him. I have been asked gravely to contradict the statement that I singular circumstance of the whole finan cial difficulty was that there were triple corners operating one against the other and all at the same time creating a string ency and embarrassment. Drew ha and at at the same time creating a string-ency and embarrassment. Drew had bought Erie and made a corner in that, and when he wanted the money to carry out his object he found that Gould and Smith had made and Smith had made a corner both in the money and gold market, which compelled him to pay dearly with one hand for the operations he had made with the other. The German gold brokers and bankers, who had better let them pass, better let them all go, because at the bottom of the labrica-tions there is some truth, and that is "that my relations to existing parties is NOTTIES ALVELOR." a large demand for gold and were short were placed in a like dilemma Hence the embarrassment to those who (Laughter.) I am one who believes that had engagements to fulfill in Eric stock and the consequent effect upon other stocks on one hand, and the tightening of parties ought to rise, flourish and decay and pass away. I believe that the country will never be well governed if it shall the money market and extraordinary be understood that one party is intrenched in power, invincible and will so remain for an indefinite period; for, whenever that is the case, cunning men, scheming men select hold of the machinery of that the case cunning men, scheming interests and control the financial situation. But the purchase of three millions are the Treasury parties ought to rise, flourish and decay that is the case, cunning men, scheming menseize hold of the machinery of that part to work out their own selfish ends, and they "run the machine," as they say; they run it so that all the oil drips into their pockets. (Laughter). Now, then, Itell you this is not a new belief with me. I have seen good parties rise and degreat of the server of the Treasury has given some ease and checked to some extent their speculations. In ease of prolifering the property of the server of the treasury has given some ease and checked to some extent their speculations. In ease of prolifering the property of the server of the treasury has given some ease and checked to some extent their speculations. In Ease of prolifering the server of th lell you this is not a new belief with mediatrice to their country and ultimately become corrupt or effete and pass away. It is shall see no more of this. As time wears on we shall realize that our allegiance is due to country and not to harty, that narty is an instrument and not country that narty is an instrument and not a superscript the stock and money of the stock and money of their power, however, as the market was easier at the close of business yester day further and sell gold, though nothing is known yet of such a purpose. It is said the cornering cliques are still actively at work to control the stock and money market. There appears to be less fear of their power, however, as the market was the caster at the close of business yesterday the caster at the close of business yesterday and the knowlife and was not sold in that a patriot can properly consider, and that in considering this he will be led to Down at Harmar, a man named PETER act without regard to parties, as he did PRESTON sold his house the other day for $1,000 and was so much elated over it OUR DANGERS OF THE PAST ARE GONE. he got on a spree. In the evening after We once had to fight against the dis- giving his wife his pocket book containraption and division of our country; now ing all his money but a dollar or two, he you may live a hundred years and you will never ace a formidable effort to divide this country. We have made a struggle for impartial liberty, and impartial liberty we have every type of the bridge over Muskingam river and the bridge o was lying between the braces. His hat was lying between the braces. His hat remained there two days, and the prepart in a rebellion that vanished more than seven years ago. I am in favor of re-enfranchising these men. [Applause.] I am in tavor of calling every American inten around the common table of our family, and saying to him, "Brother, there is room and place for you here—[applause]—be one of us." Having recompleted our national unity in spirit and in purpose, as well as in political effect; having done this, we must next pay our attention. was lying between the braces. His hat

The bride was a blushing girl of about thirteen, who had on short dresses, totally unsophisticated in all the affairs of a married life, and with all the traits and actions of a child in all respects. The map, a large burly fellow about thirty-five years old, would have suited better as the parent than the husband of the little girl.
Versus early we did not learn the purpose. of a child in all respects. The man, a large burly fellow about thirty-five years old, would have suited better as the parent than the husband of the little girl. We are sorry we did not learn the names of the parties and the participants in this unique wedding.—New Greek Tribuns.

River News.

EVANSVILLE, September 20.—Weather pleasant; mercury 76 to 77. River risen two inches. Business dull. CINCINNATI, September 20.—River six feet, two inches and rising.
Pirranurgh, September 20.—River 24 l icit that there had been bloodshed enough and that what was now needed was the manifestation of a spirit of herculean charity. Remember that dying injunction of the great King David, that years are a large to the property on his

Louisville, September 20.—River falling; 14 inches in the chutes and 34 inches on Portland bar. Weather clear and cool. Freights plenty, but shippers are unwilling to risk the water.

calef officer, Joab because he had shed the blood of war in peace. (Applause) I would two Jackes. Cloudy and warm, the mertaholuse necessity should dictate. (Applause) So, then, at that early day, the assasination of the standard of the sassaination of the sassainat assolute necessity should dictate. (Appiane) So, then, at that carly day, when the country was infuriated by the assasination of its President, I dared to speak when there were very few to hear, to a the side of lorgivness. Time passed on, it is a comparable to the steamer Quincy, fell overboard last night while the boat was lying at the bank u hundred miles below Cairo, and was not seen afterwards, though the yawl was lowered immediated and the pawl was lowered immediated.

WHEELING, W. VA., SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 21, 1872

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

Exclusively to the Intelligencer.

(By the Western Union Line.

WASHINGTON.

to be paid on the 21st.

dying.

authorities decide that the

to be registered free. All letters redeemed address the Treasurer.

CINCINNATI.

NEXT PORK PACKERS' CONVENTION.

CINCINNATI, September 20.—The time for holding the next National Pork Packers' Convention has been changed from the first Tuesday in October to the sec-ond Tuesday in September.

COMMITTEE TO MEET GREELEY. The Committee of Reception from this city, with a cornet band, will meet Horace Greeley at the town of Morrow, Warren county, to-morrow, starting from here at 9 o'clock in the morning.

ATTEMPT TO SWINDLE A BANK

Yesterday morning a man giving his name as Wade presented to the banking house of Seasongood, Netter & Co. what purported to be a letter of introduction from the cashier of the German American Bank of New York and a certificate of deposit from the same bank of $10,000, which he requested cashed. The members of the firm hesitated and made in-quiry, and Mr. Wade in the meantime left. A telegram from New York brought information that the letter was a torgery and that the certificate had been raised from $11. Wade has not been arrested.

MISSOURI.

Sr. Louis, September 20—The Demo ratic Convention for this district nomi ated John B. Clark, Jr., for Congress.

The Straight out Democratic State Con-vention for the nomination of an electoral ticket and the appointment of a State Central Committee has been called at

A WOMAN SWINDLER IN ST. LOUIS.

Brady, yesterday attempted to get cashed at the Market Street Bank here a certifiaction deposit for $10,000 on the German American Bank of New York, but sus-picion being aroused the lady was put off, and it was subsequently ascertained that the certificate had been raised from $125.

The woman left the city before she could

The International Congress. New York, September 20.—The London Telegraph of the 9th says tumult, discord and dissension, if not disorganization, have been the characteristic leatures of have open the characteristic features of the continued sessions of the International Congress. Six of the foremost members, including the President, M. Rouyler, have seceded from the condays in despair of founding that international political solidity of the working classes which all their efforts and most of the discussion have been discussion.

most of the discussion have been di-rected. They were also averse to the transfer of the General Council to Amer-ica. One of the curious results of the meeting is the dispatch of a letter to the three Emperors at Berlin, in which the democratic conclave expresses its hope that the conference of sovereigns will have results favorable to a durable maintenance Prospect Park Races.

New York, September 20.—There was a good attendance, including many ladies ace and the pacific solution of A woman registering herself as Mrs. J.

ated John B. Clark

Jefferson City.

which he requested cashed.

North-west cor. of Main and Monroe str

FOREIGN.

LONDON September 20.—Prince Arthur opened Round Bay Park at Leeds vester-day, with appropriate ceremonies in the presence of a large assemblage. A ball was given at the town hall in the oven-ing. The artificat Blancack has national. ing. The wife of Bismarck has arrived at

THE NOVEMBER INTEREST TO BE ANTICITATED.

WASHINGTON, September 20.—The interest on coupons due November 1st, is to be paid on the 21st. Upon rebate the

"Be wher o bismarck has arrived at Torguay, where she will soon be joined by her husband.

During a thunder storm yesterday, the lightning struck a mill in the little horough of Lanisboro and killed four women. Several other operatives were in-the premiums are jured. All letters to be DECLINE IN COAL EXPECTED. An immediate decline in the price of DEPARTURE OF SECRETARY DELANO AND coal is confidently expected GEN. COWEN FOR OHIO.

Secretary Delano left Washington this morning, for Ohio, where he will take part in the pending political canvass. Assistant Secretary Cowen, also left for Bellaire, Ohio, on receipt of a telegram announcing that his young child was

Panis, September 20.-The American

October 1871, another with circulating at 16 vote for whom they please. Shall the same in the province of Lorraine, a man be a rebel who seven years ago reM. About sends word from prison to Thiers entreating him to be calm and take no, step in the case which would induce the property of the county of the co Thiers entreating him to be calm and take no, step in the case which would imperil France.

A letter purporting to have been written by Don Carlos to the papers, is circulating in Paris. It promises a speedy renewal of the Carlest insurrection in Spain

GERMANY. Nomination for Congress-Straight-out Democratic Convention.

BERLIN, September 20 .- The Congres of Old Catholics commenced at Cologne yesterday. Much enthusiasm is manifested by the delegates who numbered 300.

During a recent meeting of Emperonhere, the subject of the inviolability of private property at sea in time of war was vate property at sea in time of war was considered by Prince Gortschakoff, Count Audrassy and Prince Bismarck. It was regarded as a good omen for the final establishment of this principle that the governments of the United States, Austria, German, Russia, Italy and Holland were united in its support.

RUSSIA.

Washington, September 20.-Information has been received here from St. Petersburg indicating that the members of the International Statistical Congress were treated by the Russian government and municipality of St. Petersburg with marked kindness and the highest con-sideration. There appears to be a general desire among the European members of the Congress to hold the next session two years hence, in the United States.

SPAIN.

Madrid, September 20.—A sharp debate in the Cortes yesterday, between Zorilla, Minister of State, and Ulla, resulted in a declaration by Zorilla that he would abolish the system of military con-scription in Spain, and introduce in the Cortes a bill for the reorganization of the

IRELAND.

Dungers, September 19,-The meeting protest against the occupation of one, which was advertised several days o, has been indefinitely postponed for an unexplained cause.

BALTIMORE.

AROUND THE CIRCLE.

Greeley at Columbus-Short Speech by the Philosopher-Speech by Gov. Walker of Virginia.

WHEELING DAMY INTELLIGENCER SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 21, 1872.

COLUMBUS, O., September 20.—The promise that Horace Greeley would say few words on his arrival here at ten a few words on his arrival here at ten o'clock this morning was sufficient to attract quite a crowd of men of all political parties to the depot. The train arrived a few minutes late. John G. Thompson introduced Mr. Greeley, who was received with cheers and spoke about five minutes.

MR. GREELEY'S SPEECH.

He said in substance that more than seven years have passed since the close of the civil war. It seemed no more than reasonable that its attendant proscriptions coal is confidently expected.

ELONDON, September 20.—The Bishops in o reason why the American people should of Lincoln, Ely and Westminister Church of England, and Bishop Bushop, of Maryland, United States, were present at the opening of the old Catholic Congress at Cologne. Among the speakers was Dr. Rape, of New York:

FRANCE.

FRANCE.

Pants. September 20.—The American and evils should cease; that there was now no reason why the American people should the opening of the opening of the was part of the people who should not vote on account of their participation in: the war. We deny that any should be proscribed because of that war. The opposition say the class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. We say no sir, there are thousands of this class are few. and evils should cease; that there was no Ministers held a protracted meeting to day for the purpose of the consideration of measures to scurre the public transmitted over the council.

Diplomatic notes have been exchanged etween France and Germany concerning the arrest of Edmund About. The large on which the French author is be tried by court martial consists.

Secause men of property were proscribed, and not allowed to vote, while speaker thought the time had in the display of all nations products in the domain of art and industry at the Crystal Palace in Hyde Park, April may be seen exchanged etween France and Germany concerning the arrest of Edmund About. The large on which the French author is the tried by court martial consists. General Siegel, seven years ago, had writ-ten from South Carolina, that the princi-

Dominion has been in the past the leader of the states and of the Union. Where she led, the South followed. Even in the late war, the Conederacy was nothing until Virginia cast her lot with it, and the Confederacy could not have lived six months with out the old Dominion, and when she sur-rendered on the plains of Appotomax the rebellion was over. In 1869 Virginia inaugurated the great Liberal movement on her soil, and since all has been well within her borders. You do not hear there of riots. Ku-Klux and bank defalcations but only of good government and peace.
Virginia has a pride in her success in this great work and she now appeals to you, her daughter, Ohio, to come to her support and help her redeem this country Loud cheers) Mr. Greeley then seated himself at his ar window and shook hands with all who wished.

Arrival and Reception at Cincinnati --A Flattering Reception.

CINCINNATI, September 20.—Horace Greeley arrived at the Little Mismi depot at twenty minutes after 3 o'clock this afternoon, in charge of the reception committee of the Boads of Aldermen and Councilmen from this city, who met him at the village of Morrow. At the depot he was met by the entire Common Councilment of the was met by the entire Common Councilment of the was drawn by Councilment of the was drawn of the was drawn man realize the essential value and true bear it on to still grander and more benedignity of his work. The infinite division and subdivision of labor, exacted by modern invention and machinery, are calculated to obscure all these inspiring considerations. The artisan or artifice devices his days are to making the Exposition Hall, followed by many curious visitors. Though the attendance at the Exposition did not appear to have siderations. The artisan or artifice de-votes his days, not to making a whole watch, but a wheel or pinion, or at most, a soring. He may give his life to watch-making, yet he never has seen a watch perfected, as the most skillful and valued worker in a factory may spend his years in setting up looms or compounding dyes and never make one yard of cloth. The exposition is needed to inspire each with a thorough, cheering consciousness of what has been effected by the combined labor and efforts of all. I gazed with interest on the opening of the first World's Exposition at London twenty-one years are Annarouth grantfully the processing of the first world's Exposition at London twenty-one years ago. Apparently superficially the proces-sion of Queen and Princes, of Dukes and Garter Knights, in honor of the efforts and products of smiths and weavers, smacked of grimace and affectation. How could they truly honor manual in-dustry, who had all their lives shunned it as a degradation, and yet they period dustry, who had all their lives shunned it as a degradation, and yet that parade of feudal trappings and gew gaws did honor to production and labor, however blandly and even insincerely. No property of the auspicious day when swords shall be beaten into plough shears and spears into pruning hooks, was ever clearer than that procession of royalty and aristocracy, of pleulpotentaries and spold sticks in writing. to usher follows:

to realize that the work has other and nobler ends than the highly needful replenishment of the basket and store. That its best result is the skillful, modest, upright, faithful and large souled workman. Such is the lesson which this Exposition is teaching to the tens of thousands. The material recompense of labor is disnersable, but the honor said to the there be no proscription, but let us all, white or black, unite to build up our country." [Cheers ] The distinguished speaker closed rather abruptly no doubt, thinking man, is beyond and above this, as the sky his voice was not of sufficient caliber to attempt to drown the fizzing noise of two locomotives standing near, when the first of the local standard is a substant of the honor paid to the is dispensable, but the honor paid to the is dispensable, but the honor paid to the scansable, but the honor paid to the scansable paid to the scans of two locomotives standing near, when he was speaking. The crowd called for more, and Mr. Greeley made his appearation, which seems to me, even though distant auce at the end of the car again, but just then a locomotive was hitched on the car and pulled it some distance up the track to allow another car to be attached to it. calculated the same distance work was a worked as a compensation; the should work man's compensation; the should be sh to allow another car to be attached to it.

After all was quiet again. Gov. Walker, of Virginia was called and said:

FELLOW CITIZENS—I am glad to meet you on this bright September morning.
I am glad to see before me so many intel ligent and honest voters who will, I doubt not, cast their suffrages for Horace Greeley. [Cheers.] The Old Dominion has been in the past the leader of the states and of the workman's compensation; he should manifestly be paid in proportion to the value or excellence of his product. He is oftener paid in proportion to the time he manages to consume in tashioning it. Hence eye service, dowdling, and production of fabrics or wares that look well hit fall to wear or shave. went this cannot always endure. You need not tell me that any essential change is difficult, for I know already that all genuine relorms are exceedingly so; that they are only achieved through suffering and sacrifice, and after repeated failures. You do not be the suffering and contributes to the suffering and sacrifice, and after repeated failures. do not frighten me by asserting that co operative industry is incomplete, trouble-some account keeping, for I know that despotism is the simplest form of govern-ment, and slavery requires less reckoning and bargaining and book-keeping, than any system of free labor. Do not ask me to say just how co-operation is to be reduced to practice, for I can not tell that. There will be experiments, mistakes, and failures in the earlier stages of the reform. I foresee that rogues and charlitans will seize upon it in the hope of thereby promoting their own selfable ends. I clearly noting their own selfish ends. I clearly see all this, but I think I discern a brighter vista stretching away beyond it. Now that the Republican theory has been fully applied to the government and proved a success. After making all due allowance for drawbacks, I believe its ap-plication to industry is only a successor.

plication to industry, is only a question of

ime. That the workers who make clothes or shoes or whatever else may cil in carriages, and arr. Greeky placed with Mayor Davis in the leading carriage, which was drawn by four horses. Curriers band in a wagon drawn by six greys led the procession to the department of the departm Sign of the control of the second second ($100, $200) for third, year of process of the second second ($100, $200) for third, year of the control of the second second ($100, $100, the Exposition did not appear to have been much increased by the prospective been much increased by the prospective presence of the famous yisitor.

Mr. Greeley then returned to the Burnett House, and slept for an hour, to gain strength for his speech. The Democratic and Liberal Republican executive committees had made arrangements by which the clubs of each named, could be called out at a moments notice in case he should consent to speak. Consent was obtained as early as 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the word was atonce sent abroad to the the word was stonce sent abroad to the ward clubs. By half past seven, processions were forming in the streets in various places, and shortly siter eight, with lighted torches and transparencies, and music, moved in the direction of the Burnett Howest believed to the street of t music, moved in the direction of the bur-nett House, taking their position on Third street, from which beloony it was under-stood he would speak, and an immense through blocked up Third and Vine streets simultaneously with the arrival of the ward processions. Twenty minutes before 9 o'clock, Mr. Greeley made his appearance on the beloons, at the correfollows:

in the display of ducts in the domain of art and inqual, the Crystal Palace in Hyde Park, April the Crystal Palace in Hyde Park, April 30, 1851. Our work, too, generally complete us to look down, to fix our gaze on something petty and minute, to shut out the views of stars, mountains and concept trate our thoughts on bits of metal or a few pounds or wool or cotton. We work us, with bowed heads and bent frames. We taken exceptions to it, but there has been an aftack upon me since I came here an aftack upon me since I came here which I will trust to the hosnitality and the generosity of my entertainers to the generosity of my entertai Citizens of the State of Ohio, I am here Diplomatic notes have been exchanged on which the French author is the same in the French author is the same in the province of Edmund About. The down the have one docasionally to straighten up; to exchange the pad our chests with full inspirations of the real are already of my entertainers to the hospitality and the generosity of my entertainers to cable mean permit me to repei, the extent of the province of Lorraine aman be a rebel to realize that the work has other or exclusive that the work has other than the highly ore ordinary unrecedented circumstance under which I was impelled in the winter under which I was impelled in the winter of 1866 and 1861, to offer in good faith, to submit the whole question of the union or disanion to the fair and unconstrained vote of the Southern people. After due deliberation and discussion, I said then it deliberation and discussion, I said then it was my belief and it is yet my belief, that if that people had been allowed such a free and fair opportunity, they would have decided that the union should be muintained. Those remarks which I made last evening have been misrepresented, have been I think inverted into an expression of present hallows. expression of present belief, and present conviction, that any State has a right to dissolve this union at its own good pleasure. Fellow Citizens, I utterly repudiate and condemn that sentiment. I do not believe that any state, or that ten states, even a majority of all the states has a right to dissolve our union. (Applause.) That union is founded on the Constitution, it is a chartered government, not a mere league; it does not constitute a Confederacy merely, but a nation not a government of limited and defined powers but of unlimited duration. I believe that the union is not only destined to be, but was intended to be perpetual, and I believe that our great civil war, if there ever was any reasonable doubt, has settled that doubt forever. (Renewed applayse) That slavery is dead and that the union abides forever, such is the sum an substance of the verdict pronounced though the issues of our great context. There is no longer a question. There can never again arise a question as to the perpetuity of the Union. The apple of discord, the only thing that ever made any American hostile to his own country and Constitution ers but of unlimited duration. I believe that abides and must abide forever. One sentiment, one purpose, animates the American heart, and that is that the union of the States must and shall be preserved. [Cheers] Now fellow citizens if I may be allowed, let me say a few words more, generally with recent to be rendered few words more, generally with regard to

The Weekly Intelligencer

A large sheet containing all the CURRENT NEWS, MISCELLANEOUS, LITTER ARY AND SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE, AND VALUABLE READING FOR THE FAMILY,

The Wheeling Intelligencer. TERMS OF THE WEEKLY Single Copy, for one year, in advance,....$ 1 50

Postmasters are requested to act as Agents.

Randolph to speak to you in my stead.
Gov. Randolph was then introduced and delivered a short speech. Cries were made for others but no one responded. The crowd gradually dispersed.
To-morrow Mr. Greeley will have a reception at the Burnet House from 10 to 12 o'clock. At noon he will go on 'Change and at three o'clock he will leave for Louisville, where he will remain till Mos.

ouisville, where he will remain till Mon day, thence to Indianapolis. En route here from Columbus he made short speeches at London, Xenia, Morrow and

NEW YORK CITY.

New York, September 20.—A. T. Stewart declines to allow the use of his name in connection with the candidacy for Mayor.

A Herald Philadelphia letter says that Gov. Curtin's acceptance of the nomination by the Democrats and Liberals, as the candidate at large to the Constitutions Convention is in the hands of the Libera leader, and will soon be made known throughout the State.

A State Committee yesterday, begun investigating into the affairs of the Department of Public Buildings within the city.

partment of Public Buildings within the city.

An Oneida dispatch says that Judge Henry H. Foster, of Oswego, was yesterday nominated for Congress in that district by the Liberals.

The Tammany General Committee, last night took action to looking to the expulsion of certain members, who have not given in their adherence to the political support of its national and State nominees.

The affairs in Wall street were generally quiet this morning, and but little ex-citement prevailed in any quarter.

At the meeting of Clearing Association this morning, nothing definite was done in the matter of the City Bank and Bank of Commerce refusing to pay out legal ten-ders on certified checks.

The Italians in this city to-day celebrated the anniversary of the occupation of Rome, by a festival at Sulzers Park and a grand ball this evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the Mazzini Monument Fund. Capt. Maurey, the first mate and the capition of the steamship Ocean Queen, were arrested to day, charged by a member of the crew with ill treatment, and with securing the imprisonment of Jacob Rath at Aspinwall from July 19th to August 23d. Bail was given by the prisoners. It is understood that the Clearing House Association will adopt a rule which will prevent the holders of large certified checks from obtaining legal tenders unless their enecks come through the clearing house Public scatiment favors the posi-tion of the banks. It is understood that the lock up people have decided to restore their locked up greenbacks to circulation. The November interest to be paid by the government amounts to nearly $18,000,000, and fully nine tenths of it belongs to European holders of bonds.

It is reported that a portion of the short interest in the stock market was closed out to-day, but the amount is still uncovered. It is known to be enormous.

It is rungred that the correction party. It is rumored that the cornering party in Eric have come to terms with the bears in the stock, but it is probable that the stock will be immediately oversold.

Weather Report. WAR DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, WARRINGTON, D. C., September 20—7:30 p.m. PROBABILITIES.

For the New England and tates on Saturday, clear weather and rising temperature, with westerly southwesterly winds over the former. thing that ever made any American hostilit to his own country and Constitution shared the control of the contro

Hotel Burned at Grand Rapids. DETROIT, MICH., September 20.—A fire at Grand Rapids early this morning destroyed the National Hotel. Loss destroyed the National H $30,000; insured for $14,000.

Oreceries. C. LIST, JR. B. DAVENPORT, GBO. H. PARKS.

LIST. DAVENPORT & PARKS,

SUCCESSORS TO RENEY E. LIST & CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS

-AND-PORK PACKERS Corner Main and Quincy Ste.,

oct LIST, DAVENPORT & PARKS. TOS. SPEIDEL & CO.,

WHOLESALE GROCERS,

Nos. 44 and 48 MAIN ST., Have in store and receiving daily, which we offer for saie at lowest wholesale rates.

150 Bags good to prime Rio Coffee. 150 Bbis A, B and C Sugars. 500 Packages Fish. 600 Bbls winter and spring wheat Flour.

And a full assortment of Groceries at lowest market prices. Sterobants are invited to examnarket prices. Merchants are no our stock before purchasing

500 BBLS. FLOUR.
500 BBLS. FLOUR.
50 Bbls Bye Flour
500 Hair bils Lake Berring.
500 Mackerel.
500 Watte Fish.
500 Quarter bbls Mackerel.
100 kits Mackerel.
200 Bbls choice N. O. Molasees.
73 "Golden Syrupe. 75 Golden Syrupe, 50 Hhds choice N. O. Hagar, 10 P. H. do. 5 Domurars do.

10 F.H. do. 27

50 Bbis Refined do. 200 Bbis Refine

C. H. BOOTH & CO., WHOLESALE & RETAIL DEALERS IN FAMILY GROCERIES,

BOAT STORES, PRODUCE, PRESH AND CURED MEATS, LAKE ICE. Corner of Monroe and Water Streets,

WEEKLING, W. VA.

In connection with the nonse there is a Whari Boak, and it is the design of the firm to do a For-warding and Commission and Storage Business, act as Steamboat Agents and furnish all desirable information pertaining thereto.